

Photographic Resources on the WEB

CameraPixo

This is a great site and is probably my favourite online resource. It is inspirational. It is run by a professional photographer husband and wife team who collect and publish online the work of photographers from all over EUROPE. There are regular downloadable resources in PDF and eBook format.

Magnum Photo Agency

The photo agency to end all photo agencies. Some of the best photographers in the world have their work showcased on this site.

Micheal Freemans's Blog and Website

Micheal Freeman is my favourite photographic author. His books cover all aspects of Photography. His Blog and Website are great resources. He also runs his own Photography School.

Royal Photographic Society

This is the official RPS website and is a great resource. If you can afford it, become a member and get access to all sorts of members' facilities including submitting your work for review and awards of distinctions.

Gurushots

This is an interesting site. It features a series of photographic challenges that you can take and invites you to submit your work for review and to get a chance to win points. Give it a go, who knows what might happen.

Free Online Tutorials

Marc Levoy

Very interesting 18 lecture photography course from Emeritus Professor of Computer Science at Stanford University. There is a link to all the lectures as a playlist on YouTube.
